

In 2015, PHMS was designated as a Focus School by the Arkansas Department of Education due to an extensive achievement gap between academically advanced students and developing learners. Based upon scholastic advances over the past two school years, PHMS has been removed from the list of Focus Schools. Much credit is due to our hard working students, outstanding teachers, and committed parents. Because of their efforts, Pulaski Heights Middle School is now considered an Achieving School.